4. DELEGATIONS/PRESENTATIONS

Presentation of the Town Award – Mr. Dan Lynch

Mayor Gibeau welcomed Mr. Dan Lynch, his family, friends and colleagues to the Special Meeting of Council. Mayor Gibeau noted on behalf of Members of Council, his pride and pleasure upon presenting the Town Award to Mr. Dan Lynch. Mayor Gibeau compared Mr. Lynch to a quilt; as a quilt is made with loving hands and held together with thread, Mr. Lynch is the thread holding the community together. Mayor Gibeau noted a former Reeve of Arnprior once told him of a Celtic Odyssey “small is the man who thinks himself big”, remarking Mr. Lynch is a big man who thinks himself small.

Mr. Robert Adkins, President of the Legion referred to his nomination of Mr. Lynch, noting Mr. Lynch’s significant contributions to the Royal Canadian Legion, the Seniors At Home Program, and the Airport. Mr. Jack Bradley noted Mr. Lynch is a guiding light and truly committed to his family and community. Councillor Tom Peckett noted Mr. Lynch’s assistance in naming streets in the Town of Arnprior after Veterans, the establishment of the Book of Remembrance at the Library and in gaining tax relief of municipal and county taxes. Councillor Peckett concluded by commenting that only a big man carry could carry such a large heart.

Mr. Dan Lynch thanked Members of Council for honouring him with such a prestigious award. Mr. Lynch noted that recognition is not given without the support of others, offering his thanks to his family, the Legion and the volunteer organizations to which he gives his time.
