

Arnprior was one of six communities across Canada chosen to be part of the Canada Gets Active Pilot Project. This project entitles Grade 5 students to receive a Grade 5 Physical Activity pass to use for programming at the Nick Smith Centre.

Grade 5's can use their pass to get free access to:

- Public Swimming
- Family Swimming
- Public Skating
- Jr. Shinny
- Dodgeball
- After School Program
- Youth Wii Nights

For more information, contact Youth Coordinator Kayla Reinert or Arnprior Gets Active Coordinator, Don Gougeon at 623-7301 ex 34.

This project is made possible from funding from Canadian Parks and Recreation Association and the Public Health Agency of Canada.
